Board okays school budget

By BILL SHERROD

A school budget for 1983-84 that totals more than $5.5 million has been sent to the Appomattox County Board of Supervisors for consideration, following approval last week by the county school board.

The $5,570,678 budget reflects a net increase of approximately $95,000 in comparison with the current school session budget, according to Lloyd Walton, superintendent of schools.

Despite projected decreases in state and federal funds next year, the budget reflects no substantial increase in local funds. Walton pointed to savings in operational costs during the current year as the primary reason that the county's share of the budget will not increase. The school system will also save money on two teaching positions which will be eliminated because of declining school enrollment.

Salary increases of three percent, plus an "experience step" increase for salaried employees not at the top of the division's pay scale were approved as part of the budget.

The three-percent-raise issue was discussed and debated among a large number of teachers who attended the meeting, and members of the school board.

"We know you deserve more," commented board member, Dr. A.A. Fratrick. "But the money (for additional pay increases) simply is not there under the current economic conditions," he said.

With the experience step added to the three percent salary increase, the division's proposed pay increases for next year range from 4.7 percent for a person with one year of experience, to 6.0 percent for a person with 16 years of experience.

Board members also approved a revised school calendar for the remainder of this school year.

For Easter, schools will close Friday afternoon, April 1, and re-open Thursday morning, April 7.

For Memorial Day, schools will remain open, rather than closing as originally planned.

The last scheduled day of school will be Friday, June 3. Work days for teachers will be Monday, June 6 and Tuesday, June 7.

The end of the final two six-weeks marking periods will be April 22, and June 3.

AMERICAN LEGION BIRTHDAY DINNER: At 6:30 p.m. Monday, March 28, American Legion Post 106 will celebrate the 64th anniversary of the founding of the American Legion at the Post Home in Appomattox. State Commander, Edwin J. Benta (pictured), of Springfield, Va., will be the guest speaker for the dinner. All members of the Post and their guests are invited to attend this dinner. Social hour will be observed at 5:30 p.m. with the State Commander in attendance, and a buffet supper will begin at 6:30 p.m. Call 352-7138 and confirm attendance.

Elliott accepts food program

By FRANCES H. PAULETTE

"I am my brothers' keeper..." And because he feels this way, Francis Elliott has accepted the volunteer job of coordinator for the Butter and Cheese Program in Appomattox. Elliott was appointed by Mrs. Jenny Fratrick, Volunteer Coordinator with the Appomattox County Department of Social Services.

"Appomattox County citizens are enriched by the Elliotts' philosophy that 'I am my brothers' keeper' and we thank you and salute you as Volunteers Of The Day," said Mrs. Virginia Babcock, director of the Appomattox County Department of Social Services.

When Elliott's wife, Mildred, was named Christmas Mother for 1982 in the Volunteer Program, he willingly helped her with the distribuion of food and gifts and as they worked with the program they had the opportunity to observe the need for such a program in Appomattox County.

"They gave so generously of themselves and their talent that Appomattox folk look to them as 'Mr. and Mrs. Christmas'", said Babcock. "We welcome them back for the 1983 Christmas season."

Elliott was born and reared in Roanoke and is a graduate of Jefferson High School and Roanoke Business School.

Married to the former Mildred Lively, Elliott was owner of an insurance business in Clifton Forge for 20 years. He was a partner in Lee Florist and Greenhouses in Bedford for six years. They moved to Appomattox in 1966 and opened Elliott Florist and Gifts.

The Elliotts have one son, Alex, who, with his wife, Mary Elizabeth, and two children, Ashleigh Marie and Charles Alexandria, resides in Lynchburg.

Francis Elliott, a past president of the Bedford Lions Club, is a member of the Appomattox Lions Club, the Administrative Board of United Memorial Methodist Church, Monroe Lodge 301, American Legion Post 104, Appomattox Volunteer Program, Veteran of World War II and a member of the Advisory Board of Central Virginia Commission on Aging.

With the cooperation of the Appomattox Town Council and the Appomattox School System, Elliott has scheduled the second Monday of each month for the distribuion of surplus food, as long as the foods are available.

"The 'Depot' will be the distribution point for the food," said Elliott. "Assisting with transportation for pickup of the cheese and butter from the Richmond distribution area are staff members of the Town of Appomattox and the Appomattox County School Division. The Appomattox County Sheriff's Department has offered to assist county residents with unloading food at the point of distribution," said Elliott.

The next distribution date is April 11, according to Elliott. Individuals receiving food stamps, medicaid, aid to dependent children supplement security income checks, social security disability checks will be eligible for the surplus food.

Herncall to seek office

Dan Herncall

Daniel W. (Dan) Herncall this week announced his independent candidacy for the office of treasurer of Appomattox County in the November general election.

A native of Appomattox County, Herncall graduated from Appomattox High School in 1956, and received a degree in business management from Lynchburg College in 1970.

He is owner and president of Falling River Realty Co., Inc., and has been a professional realtor and appraiser for 12 years.

Herncall is a member of the Virginia and National Association of Realtors, a member of the Society of Real Estate Appraisers, past president and director of the Appomattox County Development Corporation, chairman of the Appomattox County Overall Development Corporation, vice president and finance chairman of the Appomattox County Youth Association, and a member of Memorial United Methodist Church.

He is married to the former Bonnie Jean Pugh of Lynchburg. They have two sons, Chip and Brett.

Speaking of his candidacy, Herncall says "I feel that my 12 years of operating a successful business and my educational background in business law, accounting, economics and management qualifies me for the job of treasurer, and for the efficient management of the treasurer's office and staff. I will work closely with the Board of Supervisors and other county officials to insure that the taxpayers' money is properly managed and accounted for."

Herncall continues, noting that "as treasurer, I would strive to work personally with the citizens of Appomattox County in the collection of county taxes and the sale of county decals. I would work hard to make myself and the office available to better serve the citizens through flexible office hours and days of operation during these two peak seasons.

"If elected," Herncall concludes, "my most important goals as treasurer would be to reduce the amount of 'red tape' and unnecessary problems involved in paying taxes and purchasing the decals, and to do everything possible to see that the needs of all the citizens of Appomattox County are met through a helpful, courteous and efficient treasurer's office and staff."

Campbell to run again

Mrs. Ida Belle Campbell has announced her intention to seek re-election as an independent candidate for the office of treasurer of Appomattox County subject to the general election on November 8, 1983.

Mrs. Campbell served as deputy commissioner of revenue from 1963 to 1971 when she was elected treasurer, taking office on January 1, 1972. In addition to her many years of experience as Appomattox County Treasurer and Deputy Commissioner of Revenue, she continues to operate a bookkeeping and tax service in her home and is familiar with all phases of tax work.

She is a member of the Treasurer's Association of Virginia and has served on many committees in this organization. She is also a member of the Virginia Association of Local Executive Constitutional Officers. She attends training sessions, seminars, and meetings to keep abreast of many current changes and improvements connected with this office.

Ida Belle Campbell

She graduated from Appomattox High School, is a member of Evergreen United Methodist Church, and has lived in Appomattox County all of her life.

In making her announcement, Mrs. Campbell said "I consider it a privilege to have served the people of Appomattox County as your treasurer. If re-elected, I will make every effort to serve you, the taxpayers, in a courteous and efficient manner and be of any possible assistance concerning matters in keeping with this office. I would appreciate your vote and support on November 8."

FRANCIS ELLIOTT (standing, left) discussed butter and cheese program with county clerk Barbara Williams and Supervisors Dr. S.R. Lawson (standing, right) and Horace Coleman.

Kilbourne concert set

Ed Kilbourne, pop singer and recording artist will be in concert at Memorial United Methodist Church in Appomattox on Sunday, March 27 at the 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. worship services, and Monday through Wednesday nights at 7:30 p.m. each night.

Ed will be leading in Spiritual Renewal Services in a unique blend of music and witness. He has worked for 17 years as a religious resource in church worship and youth events. The Memorial youth met Ed at Lake Junaluska last summer at the Southeast Juriadiction Youth Week, and are eager to share his ministry with others.

Ed Kilbourne has released ten albums on the Airborn label, appeared in over 3000 concerts, toured across the United States, and in Canada and Europe. He has appeared with other artists, opening shows for Kenny Rogers and Michael Murphy. Ed is married and lives in the country near Chester, South Carolina.

Ed Kilbourne

Youth of the community are invited to a youth rally to hear Ed Kilbourne in concert on Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. at the Memorial United Methodist Church.

The public is invited to all the services as listed above. You will truly receive a blessing from Ed's Christian witness.

Roy Clark to perform

Internationally known musician and entertainer Roy Clark will be returning to his hometown area in May to present a benefit concert for Southside Community Hospital.

Scheduled for Friday, May 12 at 8 p.m. in Jarman Hall on the campus of Longwood College, the concert will feature both Roy Clark and his band as well as the popular "Clark Family Band". The concert will cap a week-long celebration of National Hospital Week. Appropriately, this year's theme for observance is "We Treat You Like Family."

In 1979, Clark was honored by the Board of Managers of Southside Community Hospital when a resolution was passed naming the hospital's new Emergency area "The Roy Clark Emergency Treatment Center." Tickets for the concert will be available for a minimum,tax-deductible donation of $12.50 and will be on sale at area locations to be announced later.

Prior to the concert a $50.00 a plate banquet will be held in Clark's honor at which time the formal dedication of the bronze plague and portrait will be made. Tickets for this event may be secured by contacting the Community Relations Department at Southside Community Hospital at 392-8811. The ticket price also includes admission and reserved seating at the concert.

Clark, whose first musical instrument was a cigar box with a ukelele neck on it and four strings rigged by Roy's dad Hester for use in the school band at Meherrin Elementary, made his first public performance with his dad's square dance band when Roy was 15.

Father Darkleaf

By CALVIN H. ROBINSON

Spring arrived, officially, late Sunday and the reaction is somewhat mixed. Here I am Monday morning, typing away in My Den and looking out upon green grass and lots of blooming daffodils. All around town forsythia is in bloom and adds to the attractiveness of our area. I have four hyacinths in bloom. And I did a bit of lawnmowing Saturday, but there is the matter of the weather forecast. Says cold and possible snow flurries. Spring? The ground is wet. Soaked. Immersed. Baptized. Especially in low spots, such as my garden. Ah yes, welcome to Spring as Time marches on. 'Tis only human to get impatient and each year we relearn that uncertainty adds to the excitement.

Sunday afternoon I used one gallon of gasoline to make a short tour around Appomattox. Stopped at the market at the Farewell Address site near Old Appomattox Court House. There I met Joe and family of South Carolina, near Charleston. I have been to Charleston several times, including Fort Sumter, so we had something to chat about. Then I asked him what Appomattox needed to get more tourist traffic and business. "You are not on a major North-South highway," he said and explained that most tourist traffic is North-South. Maybe he was correct, but chances are slim for digging up US 95 or even 29 or 11 or 17 and moving so as to come through Historic Appomattox. So, maybe we need some billboards or maps and brochures at tourist centers. An airport is not likely. And I would suggest that a tourist who plans his route ahead and takes a few side trips to see historic sites, is a valued visitor, is not in such a hurry and helps local business. Minutes later I met Bill and his family, from Richmond. Had been to Southwest Virginia, and stopped by for a look at Appomattox. During my little trip saw cars from Arkansas, Missouri, Maryland, New York, North Carolina. You'all come.

We have been thrilled with dramatic finishes to basketball games. How about the North Carolina State, Univ. of Nevada at Las Vegas finish. Carolina took it 71-70 with a basket with two seconds left on the clock.

I do not know the Rev. Ira D. Hudgins, but note that he has retired after being pastor of the Franklin Baptist Church for thirty-two years. May not be a record, but surely is a tribute to both pastor and congregation.

Is it on? The annual march of Civil War buffs from Petersburg to Appomattox on Palm Sunday? Hope so. They follow the line of Lee's Retreat.
